

BIM: Making it Happen

Tuesday 18th October 2011, 9:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

The Salford Centre for Research & Innovation (SCRI)
The Old Fire Station, The University of Salford, M5 4WT

This is the 5th BIM related SCRI Forum event focusing on the issues related to successful BIM adoption and implementation to functional integration. Previously the forums staged events covering Clients and BIM, Design and BIM, Contractors and BIM and Facilities managers and BIM and discussed the current pace of BIM adoption and the value achievable.

Chairperson: Patricia Tzortzopoulos, Programme Director for the MSc in BIM and Integrated Design. Presenters:

- Dr. Yusuf Arayici of SCRI will discuss a roadmap to implementing BIM and the three step adoption at company level considering relevant software selection process.
- Heikki Kulusjärvi, Managing Director of Solibri Inc. presents on BIM guidelines and model checking, involving rule-based Quality Assurance and Quality Control.
- SCRI Senior Researcher Rob Owen will present BIM enabling integration collaboration and process improvement.
- Tim Bates, Director of EMEA Operations for Newforma, presents their system enabling the adoption of BIM integrated Project Information Management that connects people, processes and information for an integrated project delivery.
- Peter Taylor of Building Design Partnership (BDP) presents 'The challenge of BIM implementation' considering technological, cultural & organisational and legal implications.
- Nigel Davies of Evolve Consultancy discusses the BIM roles in the company, stressing the importance to promote the idea of internal capability development, whilst securing value in a changing sector culture.

Panel Discussion: Despite innovative solution, the same information problems?

SCRI guarantees an inspirational, interactive and thought provoking day as the effects, barriers and achievements gained through BIM adoption are examined and discussed. The event is of interest to client representatives, architects, designers, engineers, main contractors, sub contractors, project managers, surveyors, facilities managers and BIM operators.
